7 LAGOS AND VILLA LA ANGOSTURA TOUR

This tour starts at 09:00 a.m. from San Martín de los Andes bordering Lake Lacar and from here begins the famous Camino de los 7 lagos. We will make stops at each of the lakes, viewpoints by National Parks, Waterfalls and other places of interest that we find as we pass.

The 7 lakes are Machónico, Falkner, Villarino, Escondido, Correntoso, Espejo and Nahuel Huapi. The Vulignanco Waterfall is another place to take into account with an important viewpoint. Half way we will stop on the shores of Lake Correntoso in a country inn run by people from the Mapuche Community of the area to eat some delicious fried cakes with homemade sweets from the place.

We will arrive at Villa la Angostura for lunch, and we will also return at 6:30 p.m.

LAGO HUECHULAFQUEN Y VOLCÁN LANIN

Starting from San Martín de los Andes, we will visit the city of Junín de los Andes and the church of Laura Vicuña.

Further on and changing route, we arrive at the mouth of the Chimehuín River, a famous place among fishermen from all over the world that rises in Lake Huechulafquen, which will have the incredible presence of the Lanín Volcano throughout the rest of the route.

Further on and skirting the lake, we leave the steppe zone to go fully into the depths of the Andean-Patagonian forest. We will then stop for lunch in a typical country restaurant run by people from the Mapuche community.

After a few hours, we will continue our trip continuing along route 61 until we reach the paradisiacal Lake Paimún next to the entrance to the Lanin National Park is not included.

HUA HUM, YUCO Y CHACHIN WATERFALL

On this excursion, we skirt Lake Lácar along a gravel road that is located on the opposite side of Route 40. The road is very entertaining: a zigzagging circuit immersed in the forest, with different viewpoints towards the mountain range and towards Lake Lácar.

One of the most attractive sites is a magnificent rock formation called Piedra Trompul. After traveling several kilometers, the crystalline Hua Hum River is crossed by a wooden bridge and a walk is made to the Chachín waterfall, 30 meters high. During the excursion you can observe the transition from the Patagonian Andean forest to the Valdivian jungle.

We return by the same route, and we stop in front of the beaches of the Hua Hum river, and in the beautiful Yuco peninsula, in the heart of the Lanín National Park. We return by the same route, and we stop in front of the beaches of the Hua Hum river, and in the beautiful Yuco peninsula, in the heart of the Lanín National Park.

CERRO CHAPELCO Y MIRADOR ARRAYÁN

The Arrayán viewpoint is one of the most beautiful and best located panoramic points in the city. Easily accessible and close to the center, it has excellent views of the town and Lake Lácar.

At any time of the year, San Martín de los Andes shines with its natural landscapes and its picturesque urban architecture, which justify its being considered one of the most beautiful cities in Patagonia. The mountains that protect the valley offer different viewpoints and natural panoramic points that allow you to be ecstatic with different views.

One of the most emblematic is the Arrayán viewpoint, which offers one of the best postcard views of Lake Lácar and the town. We add to this the visit to Chapelco hill, the most important ski center in the province of Neuquén, recognized worldwide for its excellent conditions for skiers, from where we can enjoy wonderful views of the forest, the mountain and the summit of the Lanín Volcano to the distance. A walk to enjoy throughout the year. It has a duration of approximately 3 hours, the excursion can be done in the morning or in the afternoon.

QUILA QUINA, PLAYAS Y CASCADA DEL ARROYO GRANDE

This is a half-day excursion in which we depart to San Martín de los Andes bordering Lake Lacar, with sightings of the Colorado Volcano and Cerro Sabana.

A little further on we deviate from the route and enter the lands of the Curruhuinca Mapuche Community, inhabitants of these lands since time immemorial. We will cross at different heights, to connect again with the majestic Lacar Lake, but this time with a much broader and different view.

Villa Quila Quina, is a small valley that seems stolen from the lake and facing the mountain range that completely surrounds it.

The villa has different settlements that for the most part belong to the Mapuche Curruhuinca Community. We will also find beautiful private houses, the best known being that of the Perez-Companc group, in addition to a confectionery, a pier for excursions. Does not include entrance to the Lanin National Park.

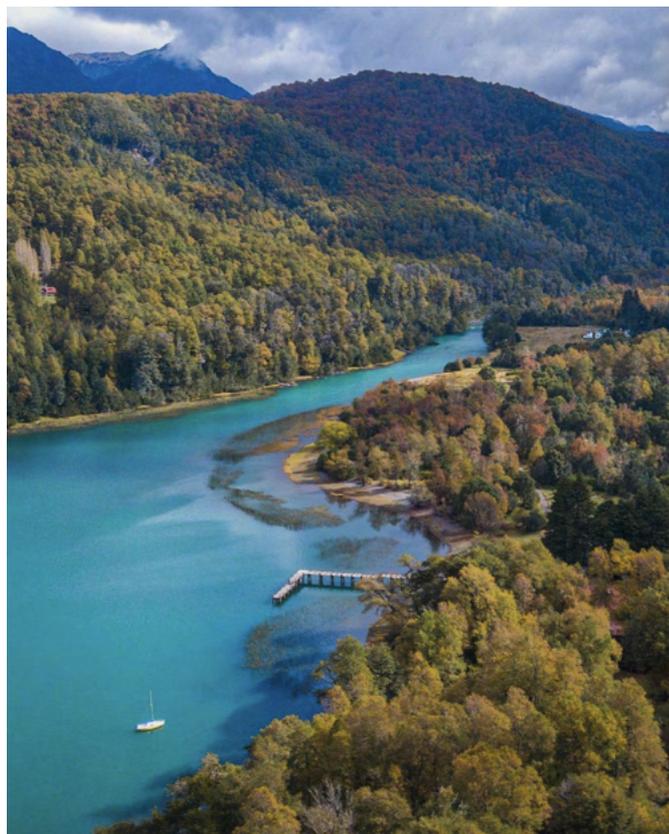

QUILA QUINA, CASCADA CHACHIN, HUA HUM AND SANTA TERESITA ISLAND

Guided lake excursion that consists of the complete navigation of Lake Lácar and Nonthue, reaching its western end, in the Hua Hum area, where the homonymous river is born. There you get off the boat to undertake a 20-min Trekking.

Approximately in the heart of the Valdivian Forest towards the Chachin Waterfall, one of the highest falls in the Lanin National Park.

The navigation begins on the northern shore of Lake Lácar, to return on the opposite shore, where another stop is made with a tour of Santa Teresita Island, then continuing the navigation towards San Martín de los Andes. Return at 7:00 p.m. Departures on Tuesday, Thursday and Sunday

WINERIES - CITY TOUR

This tour consist on visiting the vineyards, the farms and learning about the history behind each producer.

Biodynamic and ecological productions of the valley, allow us to become aware of the work of the land and the effects of having crystalline waters that surround us. The only place that in a few kilometers it is possible to visit 3 rivers and more than 3 lakes in the region of La Confluencia.

This Places that we can be enjoyed very close to the city of Neuquén, at different times of the year, during flowering, in spring, or during the harvest in summer appreciating the different colors of the year that generate a unique contrast.

WHERE TO EAT

LA TOSCANA RESTAURANT / Argentinian Food

La Toscana, offers us a simple and rustic style, which begins in the kitchen itself, with the combination of ingredients and food for its quality, freshness, aroma and flavor.

The exquisite flavors of La Toscana's menus are achieved by the cooking method: wood fire. Chef Mauricio Couly Ventimiglia adopted a large clay oven in his kitchen that achieves a golden brown, crispness, juice, texture and a totally different and distinguished taste in food.

He uses Italian cuisine as a base, which comes from his family roots, fusing it with Patagonian products.
