Have you ever asked yourself why not try sharing an outdoors experience?

*Are you interested in sharing your holidays and making new friends?
Are you the kind of person who dreams about sleeping under the stars, drinking water from a mountain stream or waking up at sunrise surrounded by mountains?*

A full-page photograph of three mountain bikers on a dirt trail. In the foreground, a man in a blue shirt and blue helmet is riding towards the camera. In the background, two other bikers are riding away. A large, rugged mountain with patches of snow is in the background under a clear blue sky.

*Would you like to experience “the freedom”, renew your energies and live moments
that will bring you wonderful memories?*

What do you think about doing active holidays? Do you think you can be the “main performer” of your adventure?

Can you see yourself crossing the Andes on a mountain bike?

Our vast experience takes us to offer the type of cycling tour we would like to go on ourselves.

Joining a Mountain Bike tour must be fun and adventurous and also a big experience through the connection with nature, culture, sports and people.
