WHERE TO EAT

LAS LILAS / Puerto Madero

Cabaña Las Lilas, located in the heart of Puerto Madero, is a restaurant that combines the tradition of Argentinian meat with Brazilian warmth and hospitality.

The venue was established in 1995 in a joint venture between Belarmino Fernández Iglesias, owner of the well-known restaurant chain Rubaiyat in São Paulo, and Estancias y Cabaña Las Lilas S.A., a 4th generation family business specializing in the breeding of the best livestock in Argentina and the Americas

LA CABRERA / Palermo

About the restaurant: "In La Cabrera we selected the best cuts of the Hereford and Aberdeen Angus breeds.

At the moment of appreciating a rich cut of meat, the ideal is to eat it juicy and for that a golden rule must be respected: the diners must wait for the meat and not the other way."

TOURS

DON JULIO / Palermo

A cathedral for steak lovers. Owner Pablo Rivero's devotion to sourcing top-quality grass-fed cuts ensures Don Julio's regular high appearances on Latin America's 50 Best Restaurants, as well as a place on the World's 50 Best list.

Empty Malbec bottles bearing adoring messages from satisfied customers are stacked up like books on the walls, but it is the vast grill that takes centre stage. Sit back and let expert asador (grill master) Pepe Sotelo cook your steak to perfection.

FERVOR / Palermo

Come for grilled steak and seafood at this stylish yet traditional brasserie in the heart of Recoleta that has become a classic with true porteño style, from the black-and-white tiled floor to the waiters in "penguin suits." It's relaxed, but elegant, popular with tourists until 10pm, and then with locals after that.

ARAMBURU GOURMET / Palermo

Following a move to stylish new premises in May 2019, this Latin America's 50 Best regular has re-energised its tasting menu. The open-plan kitchen is kitted out like a laboratory, with all tables facing the team of chef's at work, led by Gonzalo Aramburu.

Watch in wonder as the kitchen brigade whip up the experimental and inventive 16-course seasonal menu, with molecular gastronomy to the fore, including the use of liquid nitrogen and foams.

Highlights include scallop clouds and Jerusalem artichoke chips with aubergine and lime ash.

BARS AND ROOFTOPS

ALVEAR ROOF BAR / Rooftops

House music and an open-air terrace with splendid views of Recoleta and its parks. The Alvear Roof Bar creates an ideal ambiance to relax in comfortable armchairs and to admire unforgettable sunsets from the 11th floor.

At nightfall, it becomes the best option in the city to enjoy small bites, a selection of light dishes and original signature drinks

TRADE SKY BAR / Roof tops

From the open-air terrace, Trade Skybar offers some of the very best views found in all of Buenos Aires. The 360-degree vistas include the Obelisk, Luna Park, the Puerto Madero Ecological Reserve, the Casa Rosada and Río de la Plata. Just to name a few.

The Trade menu includes international and contemporary flavours, ranging from Argentine and Italian dishes to Nikkei cuisine. There is also a very nice selection of expertly crafted cocktails, both signature creations and classic ones.

CIELO SKY BAR / Rooftops

Set on top of the fantastic Hotel Grand Brizo Buenos Aires, right by the famous Avenida 9 de Julio, you find a stylish and classic rooftop lounge, called Cielo Sky Bar.

A great venue for an after-work drink or just a break while exploring the streets of Buenos Aires, this rooftop comes with one really unique selling point: its open-air views over the majestic Obelisk.

OVERO BAR / Rooftops

In the middle of the city, a place to explore with the senses. A good wine with the ideal temperature, fresh water, a beautiful sky, and very tasty food. Excellent combination to escape for a while and relax.

ARRIBA / Rooftops

Located on the terraces of Alcorta Shopping, a place of reference for fans of fashion and trends, ARRIBA arrives, the new restaurant from the creators of Invernadero, Spritzza and Afrika. A perfect proposal to end a day of shopping or for those looking for a meeting with friends in a trendy and sophisticated place.

THE HOLE / Bar

The Hole, a new speakeasy bar inspired by different prisons from the beginning of the century in the United States, especially the mythical Alcatraz.

With a setting that evokes a prison from the 30s, between bars, prison suits, prisoner identification signs and even cells, The Hole promises to be one of the bars in the city that will cause sensation among the city.

REY DE COPAS / Bar

Rey de Copas, Sebastián Páez Vilaró's bar in the heart of Palermo Soho.

Art, paintings, murals and sculptures by Sebastián and Carlos Páez Vilaró, combined with the best atmosphere and excellent cocktails and gastronomy.

The bar itself is made from old recycled railway sleepers and dressed in ceramics from the Pais de Calais region, France. The same ones that still decorate the spaces and walls

FRANK'S / Bar

Long one of Buenos Aires' most acclaimed speakeasys, Frank's is tucked away in the Palermo Hollywood neighbourhood of the Argentinian capital. Only open from Wednesday to Saturday, it's strongly recommended you book if you want to be on the right side of its stringent door policy.

Once you're in it's full 1920s glamour, with a polished wooden bar top, flocked wallpaper and chandeliers (yes, plural). Cocktails are appropriately boozy, with the signature Frank's Fashioned blending Scotch, bitters, saline and maraschino.

UPTOWN / Bar

Uptown is a bar set like a subway station in the Bronx of New York. Located in the Palermo neighborhood, it stands out with its super original drinks that are out of the traditional.

All tables are reserved in advance, otherwise you have to stand near the bar. The service is very good and the bartenders advise you on what to drink.

PRESIDENTE / Bar

This bar is located in the Recoleta neighborhood and it stands out for its excellent atmosphere, quality and taste in design.

The drinks are excellent. Food of high quality and well served in terms of presentation and quantity. Very good attention. A different place, with a level of excellence.

MALLOYS / Bar

Malloy's is a beach-style restaurant located on the banks of the river, infused with elements and memories of surf trips.

It is a good option for those who want to disconnect from the city and enjoy the nature offered by San Isidro neighborhood, with excellent food and good service.

TINTA / Bar

Clients can eat homemade salmon, perfectly cooked octopus and amazing risotto at this restaurant. There are a huge variety of wines, so that all visitors find one that suits their taste.

See for yourself how sophisticated their staff is. Most reviewers mention that the service is great.
